DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 16-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kuhlman.

Regarding claims 16-17, Kuhlman discloses a transparent touch switch with features of the claimed invention including a first and a second carrier foil arranged by a spacer from each other and the corresponding electrode to establish a pressure sensor (see, for example, claim 1, or figure 1). The carrier foils are of multilayer structure (see, for col. 5, line 47).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1- 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kuhlman.

Regarding claims 17-21, 23-25, 27-30, Kuhlman does not elaborate on the nature of the multilayer configuration, however, all limitations of these claims are general nature of multilayer structure. Therefore, it would have been obvious for a skilled artisan at the time of the invention to modify Kuhlman to allow for any one of these limitation, because a suggestion of multilayer naturally carries all these arrangements.

Regarding claims 22 and 26, Kuhlman discloses all limitations except the specifics of the multilayer structure. It would have been obvious, however, for a skilled artisan at the time of the invention to modify the multilayer based on a desired intended use. If they are used as capacitance, or if they are used in a hostile environment, they could have been chosen to provide the related specific need.

5. Applicant's IDS necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office Action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for response to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the date of this action. In the event a first response is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event will the statutory period for response expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
